The president-elect, president, and immediate past president should work together to ensure continuity of leadership and succession planning. When feasible, committee members should be appointed to the same committee for three years to ensure consistency. The president-elect is responsible for appointing committee members to fill vacancies, appointing committee chairs, and conducting planning meetings prior to the start of the year in office. It is recommended that the chair have previous experience as a member of the committee. Standing committees should be appointed as follows:

Each committee shall have a specific mandate, clearly defined goals, and action plans established by the beginning of each year for implementation during the course of the year. It shall be the primary responsibility of the president-elect to provide the necessary leadership to prepare a recommendation for club committees, mandates, goals, and plans for presentation to the board in advance of the commencement of the year as noted above.

Article 11 Leave of Absence

Upon written application to the board, setting forth good and sufficient cause, leave of absence may be granted excusing a member from attending the meetings of the club for no longer than twelve months. The Board will take into account many factors such as the reasons for the request, previous request for leaves of absence by that member as well as club finances and will vote on whether to approve or deny the request for a leave of absence. Applying for a request does not mean that it will always be granted. A leave of absence must be a minimum of 30-days in length to be granted. This is to assist members who are gone for an extended period of time, not to allow members to miss a few meetings due to vacations, etc. The member can only receive relief of dues related to the "Meals" portion of the dues, as determined by the Board of Directors. Other portions of the dues, such as dues paid into Rotary International and to the District are still due in full. The club must still remit this money to the appropriate organizations since there is no leave of absence from those sources. (Note: Such leave of absence does operate to prevent a forfeiture of membership; it does not operate to give the club credit for the member's attendance. Unless the member attends a regular meeting of some other club, the excused member must be recorded as absent except that absence authorized under the provisions of the Standard Rotary Club Constitution is not computed in the attendance record of the club.)[Amended August 2011]
